

Love and Compassion

Love the person who is a false prophet.
Have compassion on them, don't hate their abilities or gifts.
Love them, have compassion on them.

For I still want to win them. Hate their ways, their falseness, false gifts, mantles and manifestations.

For I give many time to repent, time to speak to them. For many are moving out of a hurt and wounded heart. I want to restore.

Some I can't and I won't love; don't be embittered but intercede and pray for those who have fallen into temptation.
Yes, discern the spirit behind them so you can deal with them in prayer!!

Love is the answer and intercession is the key for their deliverance.
Don't give up hope, until I have hardened their heart, there is still hope.

For the true anointing can only come from My Spirit, that is why I say "have hope" and stay in love and compassion until I come.

Yes many false prophets will come but you will know them by their fruit.

Amen, yes, amen.
Until I come, Shalom.
